CASH FAMINE IN ARMY NOW OVER

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars has been paid out to four thousand soldiers stationed at the four army posts within the past week, according to Captain Cooke, army paymaster, who has been hard at work distributing paychecks for June and July. The officers will receive their checks Monday and another pay-day for everybody will come round in two more weeks.

BOSTON BLANG.

Here is how they describe a home run in Boston:

Melvin struck the ball a terrific blow, propelling it in a lateral direction to the uttermost lengths of the field. By means of this notable performance, he was enabled to complete the entire circuit of the bases. The audience applauded enthusiastically. Kansas City Journal.

"Yes and we had a grand nothing from committee."

BOARD CREATES OFFICIAL PAPER

Ordinance Provides Official Editor to Prepare It in an Official Manner.

(From Saturday's Advertiser.)

In the final passage of the ordinance creating the position of municipal recording clerk for supervisors, Murray, Amann, Kruger and McClellan yesterday put one over. Hereafter the supervisors will have a journal in which to set forth their official actions in an official sort of a way with an official editor with an official salary which they will hold in their own official hands; a salary that can be raised, lowered, glorified or vaporized at any stage of the official game.

Low, Arnold and Dwight could not see the necessity of the ordinance, said so, and voted against it. The chamber of commerce flatly disapproved of it, basing its theory of the case on the voluminous and strictly businesslike report of H. Gooding Field on city finances which makes faces periodically at the supervisors from the pigeonhole of the chamber and sets them atremble. The merchants' association disapproved of it and sent James A. Wakefield to the meeting in person to explain this. Mr. Wakefield suggested that the board, if it considered such a move desirable, might leave the matter to the entirely new board that will take office on the first of next year, a few months away. Murray and the faithful three could not see that any record published by a new board would do them any good.

Other Business.

A number of other matters were taken up at the meeting held yesterday noon. Low's resolution for $3500 for road repair in Manoa Valley is considered to have been killed by a motion by Murray to defer. The motion carried.
Cecil Brown, armed with the wrath of the voters of the second of the fourth, appeared to demand some attention to Kamehameha avenue in the Kapiolani district which is sadly out of repair.
Road Overseer Caldwell asked for raises for several of his men, their present salaries being but $85. Ninety is asked.
Charles Costa, superintendent of the garbage department, turned in a report to the effect that there is a deficit of $787.38 in the department's books for July.
George G. Guild, protesting in the name of Manoa Valley residents, stated that he had attended many meetings of the board with requests for repairs and improvements for roads in Manoa Valley. He drew the attention of the board to the fact that at its meeting held ten days ago the appeal was made, and was referred to the road committee "with power to act."

He stated that after the last meeting McClellan, Dwight and Low had agreed to support the resolution introduced by Low for an appropriation of $3500 for road work in Manoa during the next four months, as only $2700 had been expended there since January, 1911.
He said he regretted to find that Supervisor McClellan's word was "not good for even ten days," and added that it was well that the voters of the Territory should know at this time that this was so.
McClellan replied that he would support an appropriation for Manoa when the report came from the ways and means committee at the next meeting, Tuesday.

SECRETARY IS ON MANY MEMBERS LAST LAP OF TRIP AT CLUB ELECTION

Death of Judge Hartwell Causes Change in Plans—Is Coming Back.

(From Saturday's Advertiser.)

Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox and party sailed away from Honolulu yesterday afternoon shortly after two o'clock on the U. S. S. cruiser Maryland, on the way to far off Japan, where Mr. Knox will officially represent the government of the United States at the impressive state funeral of the late Emperor Mutsuhito.

Secretary Knox was fully half an hour late in reaching the cruiser. He boarded the Maryland, the warship thundering the usual salute. He was accompanied to the wharf by Governor Frazar, Secretary of the Territory E. A. Mott-Smith and other local officials. At the wharf members of the consular corps awaited the arrival of the cabinet officer and there wished him a pleasant voyage.
Before the departure of Mr. Knox it was learned that on the return from Japan the Maryland, with the official party, will call first at Hilo, for the purpose of affording the party a chance to see the Volcano of Kilauwea in action. The secretary will undoubtedly remain there long enough to take in the sights. The party will then come to Honolulu, where the secretary may spend a few days if time will permit, before returning to the mainland and his busy office at Washington.

The trip around the island, scheduled for yesterday, was abandoned entirely, owing to the death of General Hartwell, whom the Secretary knew personally. Mr. Knox saw enough of Honolulu and the surrounding country to cause him to say he would want to see more of it on his return here.
He will want particularly to take a longer peep at Uncle Sam's great defensive works which are now partially established over the island. Pearl Harbor will see the Secretary again on his return here.

The visit to the Pali and the National Guard of Hawaii encampment at Kahanui was also abandoned. Instead of this Mr. and Mrs. Knox and party were the guests of the Governor at an informal luncheon at the Country Club. Aside from the official party, Governor and Mrs. Frazar, Secretary and Mrs. Mott-Smith, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Admiral Reynolds and Mr. Miller, partook of the luncheon.

The party left the Moana Hotel at about eleven o'clock for the cruiser. Just before the sailing of the Maryland, Mr. Knox and Acting Japanese Consul Mori exchanged a few words and then the last greetings were uttered. The Secretary boarded the cruiser and the party was off for the Orient.

"BANG" CLEM QUINN LANDS ON FOEMAN

Reads Pringle Out of Precinct—Latter Puts Up Awful Holler in Vain.

Slaughter, bloody murder and all the horrid signs of absolute victory indicated the triumph of the forces headed by Clem Quinn, arbiter of the precinct club in the first of the fourth when, after a hot fight they drove C. D. Pringle out of the club, after charging him with being a traitor, a fomenter of discord and an underground worker against Jarrett and Rose. There were other charges but these sufficed.

In vain did Pringle, after hearing the accusations read, make a defense. His reports to his foeman's thrust proved weak and his argumentative sword buckled in upon himself.
He refused point blank to discuss the matter on that after visiting the police station, where he is said to have declared that he would support Jarrett and Rose, he went to a member of the club and asked aid in knitting the sheriff and his deputy. He also refused to answer the direct question regarding his intention of working for or against Big Bill. Nor did he reply to the accusation that he had "juggled with the membership cards of the club."

In his defense he dodged the issues presented. He insisted that President Quinn was out of order when he insisted that inasmuch as the club has "resolved" itself free of Pringle the next thing to do was to have the sergeant-at-arms escort the deposed brother to the outer darkness of Kaimuki. Pringle demanded his right to be left alone during the rest of that meeting and won that point.
After this was over and done with the Clem Quinn ticket, carefully prepared in advance, was rushed through in a fashion dear to the heart of Tammany Hall ward heelers. Pringle had named a ticket of his own, but when the victory of the Quintines became so apparent that none could longer hope, this was withdrawn with a whoop. Pringle insists that the election was fraudulent and that it will have to be held over again September 7.

REAL READING.

Mr. Newrich, the Pittsburg millionaire, was furnishing the library of his magnificent mansion.
"Let me see," he mused. "You've got the order for the $35,000 edition of the lux of Dickens bound in leather?"
"Yes, sir," replied the bookster.
"And the $10,000 set of Blake's?"
"Yes, sir."
"And the standard authors, bound in calf—Trubbery, sent all of them three or four fellows?"
"Yes, sir, I have a memorandum of the entire list."
"Well, then, that's all of my spirit," said Mr. Newrich with a sigh of relief. "Now, what I want is something to read. Say, have you got a complete set of (12th Month) 1—6, Louis Paul Disputes."

Pack Rooms to Choose New Board of Commercial Club Governors.

(From Saturday's Advertiser.)

Members overflowed the clubrooms of the Commercial Club last evening at the annual meeting for the purpose of electing five members to the board of Governors. Previous to the meeting, which was called to order at eight o'clock, a delightful dinner was served in the dining room, which was enjoyed by all.

President Fred L. Waldron called the meeting to order, assisted by Secretary Bon and Treasurer Gignoux. In President Waldron's annual report he set forth the excellent work performed by the various committees during the past year and hoped for the continued prosperity which has been enjoyed by the club in the past. He pointed out the possibility of the club being able to secure a lease from the owners of buildings which are expected to be erected in the near future.

"In order to increase the popularity of the club," stated President Waldron, "the governors have recently arranged for cards extending the courtesies of the club to be sent to all captains and pursers of the ocean-going passenger steamers upon their arrival in Honolulu."

President Waldron's report showed the membership of the club at the present time to consist of 227 resident, 40 nonresident, 1 honorary and 1 temporary, a total of 269 members as against 261 at the time of the last annual meeting.

The committee on "Reception and Entertainment" consisting of Ed. Towse, chairman; Fred C. Smith, A. J. Gignoux, J. D. Dougherty and C. P. Morse, reported the following list of guests making interesting addresses during the past year: Congressman Julius Kahn, of California, "The Friendship of the Golden Gate State and Hawaii." Hon. W. W. Cocks, ex-congressman of New York, "Higher Cost of Living and Duty of the Citizen." Hon. Neil Nelson of Australia, "Inter-Pacific Promotion." Secretary Paul Super of the Y. M. C. A., "The Community and the Y. M. C. A." Ex-Governor Fort, of New Jersey, "Efficient Politics." Ex-Governor George H. Carter, "Sanitation of Honolulu." Brigadier-General Macomb, "A Plaza for Honolulu." Rear-Admiral Homer Stanford, "The Pearl Harbor Drydock." Rear-Admiral Ross, "The Panama Canal."

The year of the committee began with our "Dividend Dinner," a fine entertainment. This was September 18, 1911. November 20, 1911, a "Welcome Home" luncheon to Hon. Sanford B. Dole was given, after being arranged by wireless telegraph. December 27, 1911, we had our "Christmas Tree" and ball. February 10, 1912, was the date of our "Booster" luncheon for the Floral Parade, a real civic affair "For Our Town." The speakers were Hon. Sanford B. Dole, L. Tenney Peck, Arthur Wall and David C. Bell of Minneapolis.

A "Commercial Building" dinner for the purpose of crystallizing sentiment on this important project was given. Addresses were made by Hon. E. L. Spalding, president of the chamber of commerce; A. J. Gignoux, president of the merchants' association; Hon. Wm. R. Castle, Fred L. Waldron, president of commercial club; Theo. F. Lansing, His Excellency Governor Walter F. Frear and others.

George H. Angus, chairman of the house committee, reported on the improvements and additions to equipment made during the past year.

Treasurer Gignoux presented a report showing the club sinking fund to be $4500 invested and a current surplus of $1400. Secretary Bon read a report showing the club statistics for the past year.

The project for a closer alliance of the commercial club and the Hawaiian Engineering Association was referred to the board of governors for a report after a discussion in which remarks were made by Marston Campbell, I. Fred Bush, George H. Angus, John W. Young and President Fred L. Waldron.

Of the ten candidates for election on the board of governors, the following five were elected for a term of three years: W. D. Adams, C. G. Bockus, F. O. Boyer, C. G. Heiser, Jr., M. M. Johnson. The board of governors will meet at the club at noon today and will elect officers for the coming year.

I. Fred Bush, present vice president, is expected to succeed Fred L. Waldron, the retiring president.

A DEMOCRATIC SLATE FOR SUPERVISORS

Three new names have been injected into the possibilities of the Democratic campaign as possible supervisors. They are G. J. Waller, Capt. Charles J. Campbell and Col. Curtis P. Isaacs. With these names the revised list for Democratic supervisors reads: W. H. McChelton, Lester Petrie, G. J. Waller, Capt. Charles J. Campbell, M. G. Pacheco, Col. C. P. Isaacs, Col. H. F. Wolter and John Markham. Next!

M. H. Gayard, driving auto No. 1007 smashed into a heavy drag on Nuuanu street yesterday, the auto only being injured. He claimed the auto stopped but the police do not credit the story and as he did not have a chauffeur's license wanted him not to drive an auto until he got one.
